Love Chatham is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization established to help with homelessness in the Chatham County area. It will be a common banner under which the churches, individuals, and businesses can work together, specifically to centralize the many talents and resources available and put them into action to alleviate homelessness and other needs. Our first focus will be homelessness, but we hope to continue the work of charity and healing in the future by joining, connecting with, or establishing help for hunger, clothing, healthcare, financial planning, and spiritual counseling.

Rental/Utility Assistance: Love Chatham seeks to provide some direct monetary resources, when available, when clients have a need that is unmet by other area programs or in collaboration with other programs. Love Chatham qualifies for the Emergency Housing Funds through Chatham County (EHF) and at times will be able to work with clients to meet even more needs through this available path of funding. The majority of our emergency resources are focused on emergency housing needs and the rental/utility assistance is preventative in nature. We can often prevent homelessness by intervening with direct resources to alleviate a challenge being experienced financially.	17,998.

Food Pantry: Distribution occurs on the first and third Saturday of each month from 10 am to 12 pm at Freedom Family Church. The registration process is simple and low/no barrier - only basic information is collected and is all self reported. We partner with CORA and are a satellite site for their program. By following the intake process that CORA uses, we ensure access to those needing food resources. Mountaire provides Love Chatham with chicken to distribute. We also receive fresh produce and some other donations through the Food Shuttle program. Love Chatham partners with Chuckwagon to provide meals to clients that are staying in the hotels. We recently developed a partnership with Feed Well Fridges and have since put a unit at our location that community members can access anytime - day or night.
